Sector strengths

- the IGO sector has consistently scored highest in transparency and evaluation
- the INGO sector has, by a large margin, scored highest in participation
- Companies present a more mixed picture dependent on where the company is headquartered

Sector weaknesses

- all sectors have failed to consistently score above an average of 50 percent for transparency and complaints handling capabilities
 - But each year we have seen those that buck the trend and score well in both areas.

Sector weaknesses

- Overall, the corporate sector lags behind the other sectors in its accountability capabilities.
 - Companies generally address accountability on an ad hoc basis rather than through specific policy commitments
 - Reconciling the tension between private purpose and public impact is a central challenge for corporate accountability.
